LAW LIBRARY MEMBERSHIP MAY BE TAX DEDUCTIBLE

The Cleveland Law Library Association operates as a non-profit organization under 501(c)(3) of the tax code. We possess an educational mission designed to promote the study and science of law. As a result, some or all of your membership dues may be deductible for income tax purposes. Please consult with your tax advisor on this issue. This article is not intended to serve as tax advice.

FREE LIBRARY LUNCH & LEARN PROGRAMS

Each month this year starting in February, the Law Library will host a series of short programs to help your law practice become more effective and efficient. Bring a brown bag lunch, and share a half hour with us on the days listed below. Pick as many programs as you would like to attend because they are all provided compliments of the Law Library. Due to the length of these programs, they will not provide CLE credit. We will start promptly at 12:00 noon each day and conclude at 12:30 p.m. Here is this year's line-up of programs:

- Thursday, 2/24/11: Finding Ohio cases for free
- Friday, 3/25/11: Shepardizing and KeyCiting Online
- Tuesday, 4/12/11: Finding cases quickly on Lexis and Westlaw
- Wednesday, 5/18/11: What You Can Find at the Ohio Supreme Court's Website
- Thursday, 6/23/11: Keyboard shortcuts
- Wednesday, 7/20/11: Quick & Easy PDF Tips
- Tuesday, 8/9/11: Skype Telephone calls over the Internet
- Friday, 9/23/11: Shrinking Long URL's/Sending Big Files
- Wednesday, 10/19/11: Westlaw Digest System and Lexis Headnote System
- Tuesday, 11/15/11: Boolean Searching
- Wednesday, 12/14/11: Create Documents for Free with Google

FAQ: FINDING FORMS

If the Cleveland Law Library had a "Top Ten" list ranking the types of questions most frequently asked of our staff, inquiries about forms would undoubtedly rank near the top of the list. Questions such as:

"I need a sample (complaint, motion, order, agreement, contract, et al) for _____." or

"Do you have a form for _____?" (fill in any number of situations) are a regular occurrence here at the Law Library. We try to consult a number of print and online sources to fill such requests. In many cases, we provide more than one example so that our members have a range of choices from which to draft their own documents. We often look at state and general form sets, subject-area treatises, journal articles and other resources in print or electronic databases (such as Westlaw, Lexis or LoisLaw) to find forms that might be useful.

For example, you might be looking for a basic complaint for fraud. Anderson's Ohio Civil Practice with Forms, which we have in print or online in our Lexis plan, has a chapter with a sample complaint for fraud. Alternatively, you might prefer the Baldwin's Ohio Handbook Elements Of An Action, which also has a Fraud chapter with a sample complaint and is available in print or through our Westlaw subscription. You can borrow the materials, make copies, download here in the library, or have forms sent to you via fax or email for $4.00 per document.

What if you were looking for a sample Ohio LLC operating agreement? The Data Trace treatise called Ohio Limited Liability Company Forms and Practice Manual contains both simple and more complex operating agreements, as well as other forms to choose from. Alternatively, we could use our online LoisLaw Limited Liability Company e-library here to access Aspen's Drafting Limited Liability Company Operating Agreements and choose from a number of model agreements.

Keep us in mind if your legal research includes forms research.

DONATE YOUR OSBA AND CMBA CLE'S TO THE LAW LIBRARY

Like many lawyers who attend CLE programs, you have probably collected a lot of CLE booklets and program materials. If you were thinking of tossing or recycling these items with the new year, giving them to the Law Library would be a better alternative. We are currently running a new drive to collect and archive the last five (5) years of CLE materials from both the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association and the Ohio State Bar Association. If you have any CLE materials from either of these associations for the years 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, or 2010, we will gladly accept them. If you drop them off, we can quickly and efficiently integrate these resources into our collection of legal resources, thereby making them available to all of our members. As you attend new CLE programs this year, we would be happy to continue to accept your new materials once you have finished reviewing them.

NEW LIGHTING FOR A NEW YEAR

Over the next few months, Cuyahoga County will be installing more energy efficient lights and fixtures throughout the County Courthouse. The contractor chosen to perform the work plans to start in the Law Library and work down to the basement of our building. As a result, installation will likely begin in the Law Library when this Newsletter is being published. The end result will be a brighter Library that will help you work more effectively and efficiently. The new lights will also save the County money and help both the County and the Law Library continue to foster "green" initiatives and reduce our carbon footprints. We have spoken with the contractor, and not only will disruptions be minimal, but the work should be completed in just a few weeks.
