INTERN'S INKWELL By Nathan Genovese

Hello. I'm Nathan Genovese, the new intern at the Law Library. I'm a 3L at Cleveland-Marshall College of Law who will be graduating this coming May. I have always been interested in Library Science so this internship is a great opportunity for me. It allows me to get a feel for what being a librarian is like while getting school credit at the same time. I have been accepted to the Kent State University Library and Information Science Program and intend to start in the Fall. So far, interning at the Library has been a really great experience. I've gotten to have a taste of every aspect of working in a library. I've helped find requested materials for patrons, answered the phones, worked on a few projects for the Library's website, and even sat in on a County Board meeting. Overall, I feel that I've learned a great deal working here.

Law Library Catalog

Access Your Account: Access your Law Library account through our online catalog. Once you have registered, you can view your checkouts, renew online, order books for pickup, place holds, and pay online. Registration is easy. Just follow these simple steps:

- Go to the Law Library’s home page: clevelandlawlibrary.org
- Choose the “Library Catalogs” link on the left side of the page
- Choose the link for the “Law Library Catalog”
- Click the “Log In” button in the top right hand corner, and enter your Cleveland Law Library Card number (without the letter ‘A’) and your PIN.
(Your PIN is either the last 4 digits of your work phone number or “CHANGEME.” If neither of these work, please contact the Law Library to have us reset it).
- Once you sign in, confirm your name and provide your birth date. (If you do not provide a birth date, the system will assume you are a minor and limit the services and materials available to you).
- Complete the registration process, including creating a UserID, changing your PIN, or setting your privacy settings.

 A help guide to registering can be found at this link: <http://help.bibliocommons.com/000getting/registration>

Renew Online: Although you can always renew your items in person or by phone, you can also renew your books and videos online. Our Ohio, state materials, and videos go out for a 1 day loan, and most of the rest of our collection circulates for a week. If you need to keep something longer than these initial loan periods, you can renew your materials up to 5 times online with just a couple of clicks. If you need items longer than 5 renewals, you will need to call or come by in person.

Order Books and Place Holds: One of the best features of MY CLEVNET is that you can order books and videos online for pick up at the Law Library. There are 2 ways to place a “Hold” for an item. One way is to search our online catalog first, find an item you want, and then click the button on the left hand side to “Place a Hold.” You will be prompted to enter your Library Card number or UserID and PIN. Alternatively, you can log in to MY CLEVNET first and then search for an item that you would like to order and pick up. If someone else has already requested the same item, you will be put in a queue, with the ability to see your place in line. Please make sure that you only request items that belong to the Law Library. Even though our holdings are part of a larger CLEVNET catalog, you will only be able to place Holds for Law Library items with your Law Library Account. In addition, you will only be able to pick up those items at the Law Library. Unless you choose e-mail notification (see below), we will call you when your items are ready to be picked up.

Pay Online: Our newest service allows you to pay online for your Law Library charges (e.g., emails, copies, faxes). The system currently allows you to pay with a credit card (MC, Visa or Discover) or your own PayPal account. Just click on the “Fines” link on the left hand side of the screen to start the process. You can pay for some or all of your fees, and there are currently no transaction fees. This secure system works like most other online payment methods and will generate a receipt that you can keep for your records.

Receive Email Notices: One other feature that goes hand-in-hand with MY CLEVNET is that you can receive e-mail notices when books and videos you order become available. If you would like to receive e-mail notices from the Law Library instead of phone calls, please contact our circulation staff.
