

By-Laws

II. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to take charge of the Library under the direction of the Trustees.

III. No books shall be taken from the Library except upon the written or the printed order of the members and then for their own use in Court in the County of Cayuga.

Orders for Books. Any member desiring the use of any book or books in Court shall furnish to the Librarian the order mentioned in By-Law Number 2 designating the books desired and the Court room where they are to be used.

IV. The Librarian shall keep an order book and upon receiving from any member the order mentioned in By-Law Number 3 he shall enter the book or books mentioned therein, and if the same are to be used in one of the Court Rooms of the Court House he shall deliver the same upon the trial table of the proper room, and at the close of the trial at which they are to be used he shall return the same to the Library and cancel the order. If the said order be for the use of books at the United States Court or at any hearing before a Master or Referee the Librarian shall deliver the books to the member or his Clerk and the member shall be responsible for their prompt return and upon such return the order in like manner to be cancelled.

V. No book shall be taken from the Library except as above provided in By-Laws 3 and 4 without the written order of the President or Vice President and Secretary, and except as hereinafter provided for United States Judges.

VII. In case any books are taken to be used before any Master or Referee, the same shall not be kept out of the Library at any one time longer than two days.

VIII. Members shall be responsible for books delivered to them in their order and in case of a loss of any book by any member he shall replace the book or pay double its value within one week after such loss.

VIII. Attorneys from other Counties shall be permitted admission to the Library to examine and use books on the Card of any member.

IX. Clerks of members shall have privilege of admission to the library to examine books, but before any such person shall be allowed such privilege he shall file with the Librarian a written order for for his admission stating that such person is the Clerk of a member.

X. The Judges of the United States Court shall be permitted to take books to their rooms for the purpose of preparing opinions.

XI. No money shall be paid out by the Treasurer except upon the written order of the President and in case of his absence then only upon the written order of the Vice President.

XIII. No smoking or loud conversation or discussion shall be permitted in the Library Rooms. No member shall introduce any person into the Library Room for business or conversation and the hearing of cases and taking of depositions in the Library Room are hereby forbidden.